

PROJECT ARCHITECT LEVEL II

KELLY & STONE ARCHITECTS

KS|a is a design driven firm with offices in California and Colorado creating distinctive custom residential homes in extraordinary settings. Our studio operates in small, collaborative teams where emerging professionals gain real responsibility early. We believe that strong design and strong lifestyles can coexist.

GROW QUICKLY. DESIGN MEANINGFULLY. LIVE FULLY

We are seeking a licensed architect who wants hands-on experience, mentorship, and meaningful project involvement - not just production tasks.

OUR CULTURE

Over the last 20 years, we've designed an impressive portfolio of award-winning projects for satisfied clients. They entrust us to bring their dream homes to life in scenic mountain and coastal settings across California, Colorado, Hawaii, Canada, and beyond. One thing we don't have is runaway egos. We're a laid-back, down-to-earth group that's more interested in designing distinctive spaces for our clients than in personal posturing. Our open-plan studio encourages continuous learning through collaboration.

OUR LOCATIONS

It's no mistake that our offices are located in two of the country's most beautiful places. When the work is done and the clients are happy, there are few better places to be than Lake Tahoe and Steamboat Springs.

We are always looking for great talent and people who bring their energy and inspiration to our firm.

TRUCKEE CA

"Since the mid-1800s, Truckee has served as a major gateway to the west — attracting pioneering spirits who built an authentic mountain town. On the border of California and Nevada, Lake Tahoe's scenic mountain beauty is enhanced by the clean air, a sense of freedom, and access to nearly every winter or summer sport imaginable. There's also a hardworking entrepreneurial spirit and tech scene that is collaborative and connected, with unity in finding solutions for the challenges of today — believing in community and common good while leading fulfilling lives." — Truckee Visitors Bureau, truckee.com

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS CO

Nestled in the majestic Rocky Mountains, Steamboat Springs is a scenic resort town offering an outstanding quality of life. The city's authentic Western surroundings are steeped in history and culture, yet bustling with a spirit of innovation and adventure. Steamboat's legendary Champagne Powder® snow provides an ideal playground for skiing, snowboarding, and other winter activities. Residents can also explore an extensive network of hiking and biking trails, relax in natural hot springs, or browse an eclectic collection of art galleries.
